DEDICATION

We, the graduating class of nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, take great pride and joy in dedicating our edition of Pine Crest to you, Mr. Alton Grazier.

You helped solve our problems. As sophomores we sought help from you as one of our class advisors.

We feel you deserve to be credited for your help and cooperation in starting our wrestling team. It was your time and efforts that helped develop champions from our team.

We hope by this dedication we will be able to express our gratitude and appreciation to you for your sincere guidance to our class as a whole. For all this we wish to say, "Thanks."

Class History

With the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" seventy-eight members of the class of 1959 will bring to the close twelve years of school activities.

We started our high school activities as sophomores under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Brumbaugh, Mr. Gene Grazier, and Mr. Frank Moore.

On national election day Bill Leidy was selected president of our active class. Other officers were vice-president, Leon Zook; secretary, Janet Guyer; treasurer, George Myers; and historian, Bonnie Metzger. We placed third in the trackmeet, and several members of our class helped our basketball squad on to victory. The class all grieved at the sudden death of Ruth Weitzel on December 12, 1956.

MR. KORONA

As juniors we were privileged to have Mrs. Dona Kensinger, Mr. Donald Logue, and Mr. James Hartman as our advisors. After many years of waiting, our class rings arrived and everyone was pleased with the new sunken crest.

This years class officers were president, Bill Leidy; vice-president, John Ayers; secretary, Janet Guyer; treasurer, Judy Merkel; and historian, Mary Smith.

We presented the play "Spring Fever" under the direction of Mr. Logue. The play was a big success and the class got a lot of enjoyment out of presenting it.

With a "Sayonara" setting we were hosts for the Junior-Senior Banquet with lots of good food and wonderful entertainment.

In our final year at Cove High Bill Leidy was re-elected to the presidency. The other officers were vice-president, Leon Zook; secretary, Janet Guyer; treasurer, Mary Smith; and historian, Betty Claar. Our advisors were Mr. Paul Ruth, Mr. Lyon Porter, Mr. Robert Korona and Miss Rosamond Smith.

In October we spent three wonderful days on our Washington trip. Our chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Logue, and Miss Mary Ellen Kensinger.

Under the direction of Mr. Porter our class play "Room for one More" was a success. Our stage managers, Sam Dean and Sandra Robinette, were of much assistance in preparing this play. With the cooperation of the whole class the 1959 Pine Crest got under way.

We will remember these last twelve years as some of the happiest ones of our life.

It was with great regret that the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-nine received the news of the death of one of their members, Ruth Weitzel, on December 12, 1956.

While in class Ruth became sick and went to a room to lie down. When she felt worse, the school physician, who happened to be making examinations that day, was called. She was removed to the Nason Hospital by ambulance where she expired later that evening. Cause of death was a cerebral hemorrhage.

Ruth was a sophomore and a member of the commercial class. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville C. Weitzel.

Our Junior Class Play

On the evenings of April 18th and 19th the Senior Class of "59" presented their Junior class play. The play was entitled "Spring Fever."

The action of this three-act comedy took place in the living room of a boy's rooming house, run by Mrs. Spangler. It was the day before commencement at Brookfield College and Howard Brant was still studying.

Maude Corey went to Brookfield to see her nephew's graduation. Upon her arrival she found out that Howard was failing his zoology course. Aunt Maude took matters into her own hands by playing up to Prof. Bean.

When Mr. and Mrs. Purcell went to see their daughter graduate, they had occasions to visit the boarding house. A mistaken identity by Vic Lewis brought a lot of action into Mr. Purcell's life and much confusion to Mrs. Purcell.

Many comedy situations arose during the course of the play and made it a big success. At least we considered our play a success by the reaction of the audience on both the evenings that we presented "Spring Fever."

Mr. Logue directed the play with Dale Kensinger acting as student director.

The members of the cast and the characters they portrayed were as follows:

Howard Brant	Sam Dean
Ed Burns	Leon Zook
Vic Lewis	Rex Metz
Lou Herron	Janet Guyer
Mrs. Spangler	Janice Ebersole
Anne Purcell	Donna Mae Burket
Vivian George	Miriam Stern
Henry Purcell	Hubert Callihan
Phoebe Purcell	Bonnie Metzger
Maude Corey	Janet Gordon
Professor Virgil Bean	Dennis Beach
Dr. Dixon	Terry Stoudnour

Our Senior Class Play

The Senior Class of 1959 presented the play "Room For One More" on October 30 and November 1, 1958. This was a heartwarming two act play under the direction of Mr. Lyon Porter.

The action took place in the Pumpkin Shell, a small summer cottage on the New Jersey coast owned by the Rose family. There was never a dull moment in the Pumpkin Shell, as a dying turtle was given artificial respiration, and a table leg helped Janey find her place in the family. Later Jimmy John, a typical product of the slums, was adopted. He was tough, surly, suspicious, and walked with crutches, but after much exercise and the vigilant help of Joey, he learned to walk without any help. Mother had a deep love for children and helped them enjoy working together by employing her especial patents, the barrel and the Rose hole. The family was saddened by the death of Poppy but somehow they struggled through and looked forward to a bright future made possible by the selling of the story of Jimmy John to the movies.

Featured in the play were:

Mother	Bonnie Metzger
Joey	Rex Metz
Trot Rose	Janet Guyer
Teensie Rose	Bonnie Replogle
Janey	Janice Ebersole
Betty	Joy Smith
Miss Winston	Judy Merkel
Poppy	Hubert Callihan
Jimmy John	John Ayers

Class Will

We, the members of the graduating class of nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, considering the proximity of graduation and the uncertainty of the results thereof, and to the end that we may be better prepared to leave these halls whenever it may please Mr. Kensinger to call us forth, do therefore make and declare this our last will and testament in manner following:

To our Alma Mater: We leave our pride in being one of the last classes to graduate from your halls.

To the Junior Class: We bequeath our empty lockers.

To the Sophomore Class: We leave our desire to graduate in a new high school.

To the Freshmen Class: We leave our Senior boys.

To the Faculty: We leave our hard-studied, worn out text books.

To Mr. Kensinger: We give one soft-cooked egg for his ulcer and one day without problems for him.

To Mr. Porter: We bequeath a mug of shaving cream and a straight-edged razor.

To Mr. Logue: We give a one-way ticket to the moon.

To Mrs. Magill: We leave a new baby sitter.

To Mr. Hartman: We hope for him an All-Star basketball team.

To Mrs. Stayduhur: We leave a class of journalism students.

To Mr. Hicks: We give an automatic Shhh machine.

To Mr. Shaffer: We leave a new briefcase.

To Mrs. Bonebreak: We give a refrigerator with some food in it.

To Mr. Ruth and Mr. Korona: We leave another Bill Leidy.

To Mr. Rhodes: We bequeath a sound proof room and a course in music appreciation.

To Mr. Fisher: We bequeath a rythm band.

To Miss Smith: We bequeath a student who can type one hundred words a minute.

To Mr. Mellott: We bequeath an automatic time clock.

To Miss Parks: We leave a quiet American history class.

To Miss Lundgrun: The senior girls leave their dirty gym shoes.

To Mr. Moore: We leave — never mind we're taking him with us.

To Mr. Grazier: We leave a new Driver Ed. car.

To Mrs. Grazier: We will a well equipped office.

To Mrs. Metzger: We leave an errand boy.

To the Cafeteria: We, the senior cheerleaders, leave a dozen doughnuts.

I, John Ayers, will my basketball ability to Kenny Jarrett.

I, Harold Bailey, leave my nickname to a bug.

I, George Baker, bequeath my trumpet to Wilber Rhodes.

I, Wayne Baker, leave my tardy slips to Bill Summers.

I, Donna Banks, will my nerves to anyone that can stand them.

I, Dennis Beach, leave my deep voice to a squeaky Junior.

I, Judy Bigelow, leave my long pony tail for Bonnie Bush.

I, Marjorie Brown, leave my desire to fly to all future Airline Hostesses.

I, Mary Blough, bequeath my ability to boil water without burning it to an inexperienced Home Ec. girl.

I, Deloris Brumbaugh, give my speed in shorthand to Regan Carper.

I, Jack Brumbaugh, bequeath my position as Mayor of Fredericksburg to Wayne Sollenberger.

I, Raymond Brumbaugh, leave my room in the hospital to anyone that will need it.

I, Donna Burket, leave my persistance to all future beauty contestants.

I, Joe Bush, will my hot-rod to Palmer Knisley.

I, Alfred Callihan, give my short-cuts to Clappertown to anyone who will need them.

I, Hubert Callihan, bequeath my shyness of girls to future "fast" boys.

I, Betty Claar, give my curly hair to the Toni Company.

We, Carol Closson and Barbara Crieghton, will our quietness to Hildie Fisher and Shirley Hall.

I, James Corle, will exchange my big Chevrolet for Tom Hoover's little Cadilac.

I, Sam Dean, bequeath my class ring to anyone who finds it.

I, Don Detwiler, will my shyness to Harry Frye.

Class Will

I, Tom Detwiler, will my big feet to Donna Steele.

I, Nancy Detwiler, will my ability to get away with things to Bill Summers.

I, Aaron Dick, leave my love for the A&P to Steve Wineland.

I, Ralph Dick, bequeath my serious attitude toward school to Tom Reese.

I, Carol Dilling, leave my Homemaking Awards to Betty Shehan.

I, Kay Dilling, bequeath my wedding ring to future hopefuls.

I, Bob Dilling, give my glass of ginger ale to all future Washington trip goers.

I, Mabel Drake, bequeath my last name to a lonely duck.

I, Robert Dubbs, leave my photography ability to Stan Furry.

I, Janice Ebersole, give my worn out clarinet reeds to Bonnie Hall.

I, Barbra Elias, leave my reserved ways to Susan Greenleaf.

I, Tom Ferry, bequeath my 1958 hunting license to any fellow who likes to go d--r hunting.

I, Harry Gahagan, leave my Commissionership of Athletics to Lowell Ritchey.

I, Janet Gordon, give my lost pounds to Betsy Brubaker.

I, Janet Guyer, bequeath my love for school to Judy Neeley.

I, Ginger Hampton, give my love for Home Ec. to Gloria Helsel.

I, Norma Helsel, bequeath my silliness to Jackie Dixon.

I, Richard Heltzel, leave my Chemistry grades to unfortunate failures.

I, Donna Hite, give my pleasing personality to Sarah Feathers.

I, Charles Kanode, give my beautiful handwriting to the typing failures.

I, Dale Kensinger, give Ritchey's Dairy their ice cream bills back.

I, Cynthia Knuppenburg, bequeath my future dreams to the soup company.

I, Bill Leidy, leave my puncutality to Ann Bechtel.

I, Paul Longenecker, bequeath my last name to shortnecked giraffes.

I, Barbara Manbeck, will my blond hair to Kay Hoover.

I, Ronald Martz, bequeath my farming ability to Steve Parks.

I, Barbara Marvich, will my artistic ability to Janet Kauffman.

I, Judy Merkel, bequeath my ability to argue with teachers to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Betty Merritts, will leave with pleasure.

I, Virginia Merritts, bequeath my intelligence to Steve Wineland.

I, Rex Metz, leave my cider barrel to Harry Frye and Denny Hall.

I, Bonnie Metzger, will my wit to Edna Lehman.

I, Galen Miller, give my ability to get to class on time to Deloris Hoover.

I, George Myers, bequeath my wrestling championship to future hopefuls.

I, Fred Negley, leave my dimples to Barbara Kensinger.

We, Ruth Negley and Bonnie Replogle, bequeath our ability to get into trouble in class to Bonnie Wineland and Ann Bechtel.

I, Charlene Paul, will my giggle to Mabel McConahy.

I, John Phillips, give my Civil Defense uniform to future CD fellows.

I, Lois Rhodes, bequeath my "get up and go" to Faye Leidy.

I, Bob Rhodes, will my stature to Bill Replogle.

I, Charles Robison, leave my quiet ways to Larry Boor.

I, Sandra Robinette, bequeath my athletic ability to Miss Lundgren.

I, Bill Royer, will my height to Bill Mathews.

I, Joy Smith, leave my red cheeks to Lois Detwiler.

We, Jane Robison and Mary Smith, give our efficiency to Virgie Edwards and Arthur Imler.

I, Peg Smeltzer, bequeath my F.B.L.A. presidency to next year's president.

I, Miriam Stern, will my ability to get along with teachers to Anna Baughman.

I, Ernest Stoltzfus, bequeath my crew cut to Ronnie Conley.

I, Terry Stoudnour, leave my ability to stay cool on the basketball court to Dick Replogle.

I, Merle Wyant, will my blond curly hair to Gary Horton.

I, Dwight Yingling, bequeath my winning ways with the girls to Denny Hall.

I, Leon Zook, will nothing. If I can't take it with me I'm not going.

During floating period on December 9, our anxiously awaited class rings were given out. Everyone was very much pleased with them.

Those on the wrestling squad were Harry Mathieu and Tom Hoover.

Four cheerleaders, Bonnie Hamm, Hildie Fisher, Susan Greenleaf, and Bonnie Bush cheered these boys on to victory many times.

In March, the class presented the play, "January Thaw," under the direction of Mr. Logue and Mrs. Stayduhar.

Betsy Brubaker and Hildie Fisher attended District Band at Hollidaysburg. Also many Juniors attended County Band and Chorus.

Last, but not least, we would like to thank our class advisors, Mr. Logue, Mr. Mellott, and Mr. Hartman for their interest and guidance during the past year.

Once again on September 2, 1958, we entered Morrison Cove High School. This year, as Sophomores, our class is composed of 113 members.

The victorious Junior Varsity was composed of the following Sophomores: Gary Baker, Dave Bowman, Monroe Gearhart, Bill Metzler, Clayton Pheasant, Gary Ritchey, Wilbur Rhodes, Donald Smeltzer and Joe Dilling. Bob Davis was assistant manager.

Steve Dilling, Glenn Drake, Carl Grabill, Victor Harstrom, Bill Helsel, Ed Marvich and Bill Reese represented us on the wrestling team.

The fine task of cheering both of these teams was very satisfactorily completed by Sandra Detwiler, Janice Fisher, Jane Greenleaf, and Judith Hinish.

A Sophomore representing us at District Band was Janice Fisher.

The Sophomore class found their advisors Mrs. Magill, Mrs. Stayduhar, Mr. Moore, and Mr. Hicks very helpful in all matters. For this the Sophomore class wishes to express their deepest gratitude.

Because of the Sophomore's keen interest and participation in activities in and around school, we are convinced the class of "61" has the best interests of our school, class, and students completely at heart.

The election of members for the Student Council was handled as in previous years. Each home-room had one representative and additional members were elected from the class as a whole to give each class five members on the council.

John Ayers, vice-president last year, succeeded Dennis Smith as president. Vice-president, Stanley Furry, will automatically become president his senior year. Other officers were Donna Mae Burket, secretary and George Myers, treasurer.

The main project for this year was the organizing of a School Hand Book. This small booklet will help students to better understand the activities and regulations of the school. The council also sponsored buses for spectators to and from away basketball games. Promoting better conditions in the school was another task of the organization.

Now in its third year, the Student Council is a very valuable organization in the school as it works for a harmonious bond between students and faculty and encourages leadership training.

With the firing of questions and the throwing of eggs, the 1958-59 Pine Whispers staff started the subscription campaign with a bang. "I've Got a Secret" was the theme of the assembly presented to the student body by the staff.

An edition of the paper, full of news, sports, features and other choice items, was published each month of the school year. This year a "first" for the newspaper was the complete typing and dittoing by the staff and others. Many times it seemed as if the reporter could not dig up enough news to fill the pages but in the end, the staff always came through.

Pine Whispers reporters and staff attended the spring and fall conventions of the Central Pennsylvania Scholastic Press Association which they are a member. The fall convention was at Altoona and the spring convention at Claysburg. Students returned from these meetings full of ideas and plans for the betterment of our publication.

Through thick and thin the advisors, Miss Smith and Mrs. Stayduhar, were always ready to help the staff.

The members of the staff which kept the paper moving this year were:

Editor-in-chief ..... Janet Guyer
Co-Editor ..... Bonnie Metzger
News Editor ..... Miriam Stern
Assistant ..... Janice Ebersole
Feature Editor ..... Harry Fry
Assistant ..... Tom Reese
Sports Editor ..... Dick Replogle

The Tri-Hi-Y is in its third year at Cove High as a National Christian Organization in affiliation with the State Young Men's Christian Association.

At an impressive Candle Lighting Service on October 7, 1958, the new officers welcomed thirty-four new members into the club. The officers for this year were as follows:

President ..... Betty Claar
Vice President ..... Carol Closson
Secretary ..... Bonnie Hall
Treasurer ..... Jean Stonerook
Chaplain ..... Virginia Merritts
Advisor ..... Miss Park

Various speakers led the members in discussion from the Tri-Hi-Y Manual "Teen Talk." At these discussions the girls presented some of their teenage problems.

In order to carry out their charitable projects, the Tri-Hi-Y must have money. They obtained some of this money by selling candy at basketball games and wrestling meets.

On July 27-31, 1958 Bonnie Hall, Jean Stonerook and Betty Claar represented the club at the State Tri-Hi-Y Convention at Grove City, Pennsylvania. The girls attended work shop where they obtained many new ideas to benefit the club. The girls also attended a very impressive Candle Light Service and talent show.

The purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y is "To create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character."

One of the busiest organizations in the school this year was the band. Under the direction of Mr. Paul J. Fisher, the band met during the fourth period each Monday and Wednesday. This organization participated in many parades including: the Bedford Fair, Halloween Parades, Santa Claus Parades, various Firemen's Parades, and the annual Band Day at Penn State. It provided the special music for the school Christmas program.

Cove High was well represented at District Band in Hollidaysburg on January 15, 16, and 17. Guest conductor for this festival was Mr. Richard Bowles, assistant director of bands at the University of Miami, who had visited Cove in 1952 to direct that year's Blair County Chorus. Those who attended this year's band festival were: George Baker—third cornet; Donna Mae Burket—second horn; Betsy Brubaker—third clarinet; Hillegarde Fisher—second flute; and Janice Fisher—first oboe.

Eighteen members of the band attended County Band at Roaring Spring High School on March 13 and 14. They were a part of the mass band which rehearsed Friday and Saturday afternoon climaxed by the grand concert on Saturday night.

More interest was shown in the high school mixed chorus this year than in previous years. A greater interest among the fellows accounted for better tenor and bass sections, thus balancing the sopranos and altos.

Each fourth period on Tuesdays and Thursdays were regularly scheduled chorus practices.

Cove High's members were hosts to County Chorus on February 27 and 28. This year's program was "A Night on Broadway" and centered around show tunes from Broadway musicals. A short resume of the plays before each selection added to the program and gave the audience a brief history of the show.

Four members attended District Chorus on March 19, 20 and 21 at Clearfield. They were: Bonnie Metzger — first alto; Janice Ebersole—second alto; Miriam Stern—second soprano; and George Baker—tenor.

The chorus presented an operetta, "Waltz Time" centered around the life of Kirby Stevens, who is determined to be a song writer. All his parents and friends turned against him except Sue, his girlfriend. After many rejections by music publishing houses, he finally succeeded in getting "There's a Waltz in the Heart of Everyone" published, which turned out to be a hit over night.

The Morrison Cove Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America was organized on January 6, 1959. The purpose of the club is to give young people who plan to enter the business world an opportunity to learn about business organizations and the way they work, and to create an interest in taking business subjects that prepare one for a future business job.

There were thirty-four members enrolled in the club. Any Sophomore, Junior, or Senior in the Business Department may apply for membership in the local chapter. In years to come any student interested in becoming an F.B.L.A. member must be approved by three-fourth vote of the club members.

Club officers selected were:

President	Peg Smeltzer
Vice President	Mary Smith
Secretary	Betty Lou Claar
Treasurer	George Myers
News Reporter	Jane Robison
Historian	Donna Mae Burket

The club met once a month, and special meetings were called when necessary. The Williamsburg F.B.L.A. had charge of the installation of officers for our chapter.

Miss Smith and Mr. Mellott, the commercial teachers, served as advisors for the club.

News Reporter ..... Bonnie Hall

Our November meeting was an inspirational meeting with Mrs. Shriver of the Shriver Florist giving us a demonstration on flower arrangements. December found us making cookies for the Morrison Cove Home for the Aged.

Two of our F.H.A. girls were responsible for refreshments for the story hour in December. The program for the December meeting was a demonstration by Doris Roth of Pennsylvania Light and Power. The demonstration was based on frozen foods.

January 14 we journeyed to the State F.H.A. meeting in Harrisburg where one of our members, Carol Dilling, was awarded the State Homemaker Degree. The afternoon was spent at the Farm Show where special attention was given to home making exhibits.

In February a Valentine party was enjoyed at the Sportsmen's Lodge, the F.H.A. being hostess to the F.F.A.

In March we had a demonstration by Mrs. Frederick on silver and china.

April plans were made to attend Home Economics Day at Penn State.

The crowning point of the year was the F.F.A. and F.H.A. banquet on April 10, where the Homemaking and Chapter degrees were awarded.

The Morrison Cove Chapter of Future Farmers of America is proud to be a part of the 1959 Pine Crest. Our membership this year included 56 in school members.

Activities this year again were numerous with many members winning awards. Early in the summer 11 boys attended the state F.F.A. convention at the Pennsylvania State University. These boys participated in numerous judging contests and attended various agricultural demonstrations. Max Longenecker won an honorable mention award in the farm mechanics contest.

In July our members showed hogs at the Fulton-Bedford-Blair Market Hog Show and Sale that we held at the Morrison Cove Livestock Market. For the second consecutive year a member of the Morrison Cove Chapter showed the grand champion hog. Ronald Stern showed and sold this 180 lb. Yorkshire gilt. The Cove boys showed 7 of the top 10 hogs. This is the first year that our chapter had this many winners in this contest. Other winners were: Wayne Burket, 4th place; Ken Blattenberger, 5th place; Gary Smith, 6th place; Robert Weyant, 7th place; Charles Bechtel, 8th place; and Dennis Smith, 10th place.

Twelve members of the Cove Chapter showed steers at the Bedford Fair in the baby beef contest. Bob Drake showed the reserve champion steer in the Altoona Mirror Contest. His Angus steer took 3rd place in the Angus division of the Bedford Fair Contest.

Dairy cattle were showed at the various dairy shows in the Fulton-Bedford-Blair area. Don Detwiler, Dale Hoover, Harold Bailey, Ron Biddle, Ronald McKinney, and Jim Metzker were all exhibitors in the Bedford Fair, Morrison Cove Dairy Show and F.F.A. Regional Dairy Show.

Wayne Sollenberger was the winner of the American Institute of Cooperation Award. Wayne won the top honors in competition with F.F.A. and 4-H Club members in Blair and Huntingdon Counties. His award was a trip to the A.I.C. convention held at the Pennsylvania State University. This is the second straight year that a boy from the Cove Chapter won this award.

In October the senior class went to Fulton County to see the benefits that a county receives when they become a soil conservation district. They saw instances in which cooperation between the Department of Highways, Department of Forest and Water, Game Commission, Extension Service and Soil Conservation Service had been carried out to benefit the farmers. Interest in soil and water conservation expanded from this trip and the members were wondering when Blair County would become a soil conservation district and receive these benefits.

Bill Leidy, the F.F.A. president, was the only member to receive the Keystone Farmer Degree. Competition this year was very keen. Most of the Cove's 13 applicants were rejected for only having had completed 2 years of Vocational Agricultural.

The State Farming Program evaluation was again conducted and the Morrison Cove Chapter received many medals. Bill Leidy's program received the highest number of points in the state but when the top 3 boy's programs were re-considered, Bill placed second to a boy with a more extensive program. He won the Hollidaysburg 6 County Production Credit Association Award. Dennis Smith won the Blair County P.C.A. Award, and Joe Steele won the Bedford County P.C.A. Award. Other boys that won state farming program awards were Dale Hoover, Wayne Sollenberger, Gary Smith, Tom Detwiler, Max and Dale Longencker, Paul Longenecker, Harold Bailey, Galen Miller, Wayne Burket, and Robert Weyant.

Last September at the Morrison Cove Community Fair our chapter placed 2nd with our window exhibit. We placed 3rd at the Hollidaysburg Community Fair.

The awards that our members received denote a lot of hard work. It truly indicates that we are earnestly striving to live up to our motto of Learning to do, Doing to learn, Earning to live, Living to serve.

On October 10, 1958 the Camera Club held its first formal meeting of the 1958-59 school year. Mrs. Magill, club advisor, supervised the meeting in which the following officers were elected:

President ..... Stanley Furry
Vice President ..... Bernard Summers
Secretary ..... Bonnie Hamm
Treasurer ..... Gary Horton

Club activities were hampered this year by the set-up of floating periods. However, all members gained much knowledge in the photographing and development of a picture.

A special privilege to club members only was the use of the darkroom. Films were developed for any person of the student body who desired so and was willing to pay the small fee of 30c or 35c.

A special exhibit was prepared by the members and presented to the student body on February 24. The display consisted of prize winning photos of the Kodak Photographic High School Contest, sponsored by the Eastman Kodak Company. A short story with each photo told why it had been picked as a prize-winner; the angle of the main character with the background, the feeling displayed in the picture, the lighting effects, etc.

Several films and several demonstrations regarding photography were shown during the school year.

Although the club is rather new, it is a very worth-while one and can prove beneficial to all members as they learn to develop films, print and enlarge pictures.

At the conclusion of the 1958-59 basketball season Cove posted a 12-8 record. Cove's followers were somewhat pessimistic over the team's chances this year. The loss of Bice, Bush and Smeltzer seemed too much to overcome. But they did not anticipate the coaching of Mr. Croft and the great ability and spirit of returnees Ayers, Zook, and Leidy.

This year three of our senior varsity players were elected to play on the league All Star team. The seniors were John Ayers first string, Bill Leidy second string, and Leon Zook received honorable mention.

John Ayers set a new record of 349 points to break his brother Don's record. His average this year is 18 points a game.

John received a trophy from the business men of the community for being high scorer on the team. Ayers is the first man on the team ever to receive such a trophy. He also was the recipient of the Juniata Valley Good Sportsmanship Award presented by the Blair County Chapter of basketball officials. Congratulations John.

As we go to press, another great cage team has added to the lustre of Cove's basketball history. Our sincere congratulations to our coach and splendid team.

In the 1958-59 season, the Cove Junior Varsity posted a 16-4 record. Our team was defeated once by each of the following: Altoona Catholic, Tyrone, Williamsburg, and Everett.

Donald Smeltzer and Steve Park led the team in points with an average of 11 and 10 points per game, respectively. Don racked up 194.

This year's team consisted of the following: D. Hoover, B. Metzler, G. Baker, M. Gerhart, D. Bowman, W. Rhodes, C. Ritchey, C. Pheasant and B. Hampton.

The great coaching ability of Mr. Hartman proved to be the right thing to keep the boys on top.

We wish to thank him and also wish next year's Junior Varsity luck. We hope next season will be as good as the last.

Wrestling at Cove High has picked up considerably since it first started three years ago. Although this year's team only won two matches in nine appearances, individual competition has been the best since the sport started.

Six of the starting eleven ended the season with winning records. They are Ed Marvich 9-3, Merle Wyant 7-5-1, George Myers 15-2, Dwight Yingling 10-3, Rex Metz 6-6, and Bill Royer 6-5.

Cove had entrants in two tournaments. In the Hollidaysburg Invitational Wrestling Tournament. Dwight Yingling, 154 pounds, placed second losing only to Ron Neff of Hollidaysburg 4-0. George Myers placed first in the 138 pound class winning over Fetters by a third period pin.

In the District 6 Wrestling Tournament at Lock Haven State Teachers College, Cove had one person, George Myers, advance to the semi-finals. He was beaten 4-3 in the semi-final round.

Congratulations to this year's team and success to the senior boys who participated on the squad.
